ROGER CLEVELAND (512) AND DORCAS (513)*

Roger Cleveland is the first known Cleveland of our line. It is believed that he was an emigrant from England and settled in Gloucester Co., Virginia. Roger was living in that colony by November 16, 1670. He and his wife, Dorcas, surname unknown, appear to be the first Clevelands in the records of Virginia. Roger and Dorcas were still living in Gloucester in 1679 at which time he purchased land in Old Rappahannock Co.

The three children that we know of this couple are as follows: John, born before 1678; Elizabeth, born 1684; Alexander (our ancestor), born 1687, married Milly Presley.

*Dorcas is sometimes referred to as Dorothy.

Edmund Janes Cleveland in his work published in 1899 (Source 23), suggests that the earliest known Cleveland of our line was an Alexander Cleveland who was born about 1617 in England and married a Miss Axminster. He proposes that Alexander or his son, also Alexander, settled in Virginia. However, he admits that there is little evidence to document these claims and later genealogists discount them. Other well documented studies point to Roger, who was the father of our Alexander, as our earliest known Cleveland ancestor.

Old Rappahannock Co. later became Essex Co. and may have been that part of Essex which still later became Spottsylvania Co.

THE REGISTER OF ABINGDON PARISH,

GLOUCESTER COUNTY,

COMPILED BY

ROBERT W. ROBINS

HONFORD HOUSE
Arlington, Virginia

F O R E W O R D

Historians and genealogists are indeed fortunate and grateful that Robert Wayne Robins, a native of Gloucester County, Virginia, has undertaken the tedious task of publishing the Abingdon Church Parish Register.

Mr. Robins has long been interested in the history of colonial Gloucester County where his ancestors have been domiciled for generations and that one with an intimate knowledge of this area has been inspired to publish this parish register is in itself a blessing.

The original register was destroyed in 1916 in the calamitious fire which consumed handsome "Rosewell," for generations the seat of the aristocratic Page family. However, before that event three handwritten transcripts were made, but these transcribers did not always precisely agree. However, working from these three manuscripts, Mr. Robins has accomplished an almost unsurpassable task and I salute the transcribers and him to each of whom we are indebted for making this valuable material available to us.

SECTION 3A. CLEVELAND

There has been a wealth of history written about this family; so much that the task of selecting and condensing appropriate material for the limited space in a genealogy has been one of frustration. The historians and genealogist sometimes disagree on details, but there is general agreement on substance. We will attempt to present a sketch of these people from their origins in England, through their sojourns in Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia, to the culmination of this genealogical line with Colonel Benjamin Cleveland and his son, Absalom, on the fork of the Tugaloo River and Chauga Creek along the South Carolina and Georgia line in present day Oconee County, South Carolina.

On a current map of England, with sufficient detail, in the District of North Yorkshire and just south of the City of Middlesbrough, will be found the words "Cleveland Hills" in what is now named North York Moors National Park. From Middlesbrough's (coincidence) "New International Encyclopedia" comes the best source on the origin of the name: "Cliy, Cley, Clives, Cleves, Cliffs, plus land equals Cleveland." Other sources also state that the name derives from the English word "cliff", meaning precipice, hill, ridge, etc. From William Camden's "Brittania" we have: "From Whitby the shore retires to the west near Cleveland, so named as it should seem from the hills which we call cliffs, ridges, or mountains." The earliest Cleveland of record was one Thorkil, probably a Saxon land owner, who assumed the name Cleveland soon after the Norman Conquest, calling himself Thorkil de(of) Cleveland. He had his seat at Gisborough, Cleveland, County York, England. The first name, Thorkil, indicates that he was of Anglo-Saxon ancestry and not of Norman descent, although both these and the Danes were of the same origin. It is this area, North Riding of Yorkshire, England, that the consensus of historians and genealogist present as the origin of the ancestors of the Cleveland families in America.

Genealogist have pursued, and at times intermingled, two family lines descending from a Moses Cleveland and an Alexander Cleveland. Apparently Moses was the American progenitor of a line in New England from which President Grover Cleveland descended, and Alexander that of a line which started in Virginia and continued into the Carolinas, Georgia, and points west. It is this descendancy from Alexander which we will follow in this genealogy. Material will be presented on the descendants where material is available, and space permitting, but the general trend will concentrate on the main blood line.

It seems that there is unanimous agreement among those who have researched the Cleveland families that an Alexander was the American ancestor of the Southern Clevelands, and a Moses that of the New England Clevelands. Disagreement enters into the search, and proof thereof, of the father of this Alexander. The following record sources, as compiled by Mr. June Rayfield Welch, a family descendant of Dallas, Texas, have been used to reach a decision in starting this genealogical narrative:

1. The Genealogy of the Cleveland Families, Vol. 3, Hartford: 1899 by Edmund Janes Cleveland.

2. Minutes of the Council and General Court of Colonial Virginia, Vol. 58, page 254, Virginia State Library, Richmond.

3. Spotsylvania County, Virginia, Records, by Crozier, page 17, Library of Congress, Washington, DC.

4. Virginia Cleveland Ancestor Discovered, by George A. Martin, as published in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Sept 1958, Vol. 46, page 152.

5. Abingdon Parish Register, Gloucester County, Virginia, 1678-1761, Virginia State Library, Richmond, births, baptisms, marriages, and deaths, pages 8, 11, 19, 37, 40, 45, and 54.

6. Life and Addresses of W.H. Woolery, LL. D., Cincinnati: The Standard Publishing Co., 1893, pages 10-39.

Edmund Janes Cleveland's research was primarily directed toward Moses Cleveland in New England, however, he did devote a few words to the southern Cleveland line. It seems that there was an Alexander Cleveland in England, born Ca. 1617, who married a daughter of Lord and Lady Axminster. Janes Cleveland, although very vaguely, states that this Alexander later settled in Prince William County, Virginia, and was the father of Alexander, our Virginia ancestor. Yet he admitted not finding birth, marriage, land, court, and death records for his Alexander, nor any evidence that he came to America.

On the other hand, sources 2, 3, and 4 clearly support a ROGER CLEVELAND as being the first Cleveland in Virginia. He arrived before 16 November 1670. He married, either in England or Virginia, a lady named DORCAS (last name not known). He signed a deed in 1679 in Gloucester County, Virginia. He later moved to that part of Spotsylvania County which later became, in 1734, Orange County. Sources 5 and 6 contain births, baptisms, some marriages, and some death records of the known children of Roger and Dorcas, and some futher descendants. The three known children were (probably others):

1. John Cleveland was born prior to 1678.

2. Elizabeth Cleveland was baptized 31 October 1684.

3. ALEXANDER CLEVELAND was baptized 31 July 1687 in Gloucester County, Virginia, and died in 1775. He married, Ca. 1711, MILDRED (MILLEY) PRESSLEY.

On 7 February 1733, Alexander Cleveland witnessed a deed from William Hutcherson of St. George's Parish, Spotsylvania County, to Rice Curtis of same. VA Deed Book B, 1729-1734. On 20 May 1735, Rice Curtis Sr. of Spotsylvania County conveyed 600 acres on both sides of "Blew Run" on the Hanover County line to Thomas Chew of Orange County, St. Mark's Parish, adjoining land of John Minor and Alexander Cleveland, part of a 1600-acre patent to Chew, sold to Curtis, and repurchased.

Alexander of Spotsylvania County, in September 1738, bought 100 acres from Laurence Franklin of Orange County. On the same day John Cleveland bought 100 acres from Rice Curtis on branches of "Blew Run" adjoining Alexander. It was witnessed by Grace Cleveland, daughter of Alexander, who probably married Edward Coffey, son of Edward and Ann Powell Coffey.

On 27 May 1743, Alexander Cleveland having petitioned for a road, it was ordered that Alexander Cleveland Jr., John Cleveland, Benjamin Franklin, Edward Coffee, and others, under Laurence Franklin, clear the road. (James Madison, father of the future president, became road overseer from Blue Run Mill Road to the main road below Colonel Chew on 22 March 1749).

We would be more pleased had we found additional records, but this seems to be sufficient proof that our line descends from Roger Cleveland to Alexander Cleveland Sr., to John Cleveland Sr., to Benjamin Cleveland, to Absalom Cleveland, to Mary Cleveland who married Thomas Harbin. At this point we will continue with the family of ALEXANDER CLEVELAND, SR. and MILDRED PRESSLEY on the next page.

CLE(A)VELAND FAMILY HISTORY

This genealogical information was compiled from previous sources and by the research of Ray L. Christian and R. Chris Cleaveland. In an effort to keep this history to a manageable size and length, we will focus mainly on the Troup Co, Ga, (LaGrange), branch of the Cle(a)veland family. Please keep in mind that all the information on marital status, children, employment and place of residence is current as of late 1992. We have made every effort to be as accurate as possible, but we know errors will be found. Please notify me and I will be glad to correct any errors. If one branch of the family is left out, it is because I have not been able to find anyone to answer questions about those left out. I will be updating this history, so please contact me if you have any information to add. Underlined names are the ones most commonly used.

This history will start with the earliest known Cleveland in England and come forward in time. Thorkil de Cleveland will be given the designation of generation #1 since he is the earliest known Cleveland. Thorkil's son will be listed as generation #2 and his grandson will be listed as generation #3, etc. All persons listed with the same number are from the same generation as they relate to Thorkil de Cleveland.

Gener-

1 Thorkil de Cleveland, in the North Riding, (or nothern part), of the County of York, England, in the year 1066. (The British call it Yorkshire). <Editors note - In 1974, the North Riding of the County of York was split off and renamed the County of Cleveland, England. The County of Cleveland has an area of 225 square miles and has a 1988 population of 553,000.> Thorkil had one son as follows:

2 Uctred de Cleveland, a saxon land owner holding three Manors in the town of Ghiegesburg, together with other valuable lands mentioned in the DOOMSDAY BOOK OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086. He had one son as follows:

3 Robert de Cleveland, he had at least one son as follows:

4 Robert de Cleveland, II, he had at least one son as follows:

5 Ralph de Cleveland, he had at least one son as follows:

6 Peter de Cleveland, he had at least one son as follows:

7 Robert de Cleveland, he had at least one son as follows:

8 John de Cleveland, he had at least one son as follows:

9 John de Cleveland, II, b. 1403, in County York, England, he had at least one son as follows:

10 John de Cleveland, III, he had at least one son as follows:

11 William de Cleveland, I, Sheriff of County York, England in 1456, he had at least one son as follows:

12 William de Cleveland, II, he had at least one son as follows:

13 Rev. Thomas de Cleveland, he had at least one son as follows:

14 William de Cleveland, d. 1630; moved from County York to Henckley in Leicestershire where he was buried a very old man. Had one son as follows:

15 Thomas de Cleveland, became Vicar of Henckley, the family estate. He had two sons as follows:

16 John de Cleveland, (also spelled Cleiveland), b. 1613 in Loughborough, Leicestershire; d. 4-29-1658 in London. John graduated from Cambridge in 1635. He was a highly regarded author and teacher and wrote the famous poem THE REBEL SCOT, about the English civil war. A collection of his literary works was published in 1677 by some of his former pupils.

16 Thomas de Cleveland, had at least two sons as follows: Moses and Alexander. <*NOTE-At this point of descent, there is considerable difference of opinion over whether or not the Alexander listed as the son of Thomas de Cleveland is really Alexander Cleveland, son of Roger and Dorcas Cleveland, of the Abingdon Parish Register, Gloucester Co, Va, 1678-1761, p. 11.>

The reference of Roger Cleveland being the father of the Virginia Clevelands is the Minutes of the Council and General Court of Colonial Virginia, Vol. 56, p. 254, and is located at the Va. State Library in Richmond, Va. This mystery of Alexander Cleveland may never be conclusively decided because each side has their own opinion concerning the scarce facts that have survived. Adding to the confusion for researchers is the fact that many of the early Cleveland families used similiar names repeatedly, (John, Alexander, Larkin, Jeremiah, Reuben, etc). Another factor adding to the uncertainty is that Roger Cleveland seemed to come from nowhere. In a search of over 700 English parish records, he cannot be found.

I tend to think that 17-Alexander Cleveland was the son of 16-Thomas de Cleveland, but I reserve the right to later change my mind if conclusive proof is ever discovered.

17 Moses Cleaveland, immigrated in 1635 from Ipswich, County Suffolk, England, to the Massachusetts colony. Moses went on to start a family and his descendants migrated westward and they formed the northern branch of the Cleveland family or the NORTHERN CLEVELANDS. President Grover Cleveland was descended from these Northern Clevelands and Cleveland, Ohio, was also named after Moses Cleaveland, one of the Northern Clevelands. (Yes, Moses did spell his surname Cleaveland).

17 Alexander Cleveland, I, born about 1617, m. Lady Axminster, daughter of Lord Axminster of London. They had at least one child and may have immigrated with the child to Prince William County, Va. <Reference for this marriage-Abridged Compendium of American Genealogy, Volume 2, p.160, by Virkus>. This reference also states that Alexander I, and his brother, Moses, immigrated from England to the colonies, (Volume 7, p. 554). Alexander I, was the founder of the southern branch of the Cleveland family or the SOUTHERN CLEVELANDS. Most of his early descendants migrated to the Carolinas and Georgia. Alexander I or Sr, had at least one son as follows: Alexander II or Jr., b. 1659.

18 Alexander Cleveland, II, b. 1659; d. 1770; DIED AT THE AGE OF 110 at the home of his son, John, in Blue Run, Va. He married Mildred Pressley, b. 1667; d. 1770. She died at age 103 within 3 days of her husband. Alexander II and Mildred had at least 9 children as follows: sons (6) John, Alexander, Micajah, Jeremiah, William, and Benjamin; daughters (2) Elizabeth, Jane, and Grace.

19 John Cleveland, b. 1695 in Orange County, Va. He later moved to Blue Run, Va., where he died in 1778. John m. Martha/Elizabeth? Coffee. John and Martha were the parents of Col. Benjamin Cleveland, one of the most colorful characters in the history of the Cleveland family. John and Martha had 9 children as follows: sons (6) Benjamin (Col.), b.5-26-1738; Larkin (Lt.),b.4-6-1748; and Robert (Capt.), b.1-8-1744; John Jr, (Rev.), Jeremiah, b. 1746, and Reuben, b. 1752, daughters (3) Mary, b.5-26-1731; Elizabeth ("Betty"), b. ? ; Martha ("Patty"), b. about 1750.

20 Benjamin Cleveland, b. 5-26-1738; d. Oct. 1806; m. Mary Graves in Orange Co, Va. Benjamin discovered early in life that he had no interest in farming and he concentrated on learning how to hunt and survive in the wilderness and he became quite adept at it. This knowledge served him well as he fought in numerous bloody battles during the French and Indian Wars and gained quite a reputation as a fierce foe in battle. It was during these years that Benjamin traveled widely and made many friends among the frontiersmen and mountainmen of the region. He was a very likable person and had the great quality of leadership. Benjamin was an aquaintance of Daniel Boone and learned from him of the great hunting grounds of Kentucky and of the Cumberland Gap passage through the mountains. Benjamin survived a tomahawk wound to the chest from a Cherokee indian during his second trip to Kentucky in 1772.

It was during the year 1775 that the southern colonies resistance to the tyrannical rule of England began to surface. In 1776 open hostilites broke out and Cleveland quickly raised a group of mountain men and continued his colorful military career fighting the British and

He purchased land in Old Rappahannock County, which became Essex, which later became Spotsylvania County, VA. Roger is mentioned on the Minutes of the Council and General Court of Colonial Virginia on Nov. 16, 1670 (Vol. 58, pg. 254).

In 1679, Symon Miller of Rappahannock, "boate wright sold to Roger Cleverland of the Pish of Abbington of County of Gloucester planter 440 acres lying on the North side of Rappahannock River adjoining Cornelius Reynolds. Signed by Simon Miller and Margaret (X) Miller, witnesses Cor: Reynolds and Jno Rowzie." Recorded 5 November 1679, Edmo: Craske.

Roger moved to part of Spottsylvania County that in 1734 became Orange County.

According to Edmund Janes Cleveland (vol. 3 of The Genealogy of the Cleveland Families) Alexander Cleveland (b. Eng c1617) was father of Alexander (who m. Milly Presley) & settled in Prince Wm County, VA. He m. Lord Aminster's daughter. EJC very vague about this, admitted that he had found no record of b., d., m. of earlier Alexander. EJC descendant of & mainly interested in Moses Cleveland. George A. Martin ("Virginia Cleveland Ancestor Discovered," National Genealogical Society Quarterly, Vol 46, Sept 1958, p. 152.

ALEXANDER CLEVELAND (256) AND MILLY PRESLEY (257)*

Alexander Cleveland, son of Roger Cleveland and Dorcas, was born in 1687 in Virginia. Around 1711, he married Milly Presley, parents unknown to us. Milly's birthdate, sometimes given as 1667, is obviously incorrect.

After their marriage Alexander and Milly apparently lived in Gloucester Co., Virginia where their first five children were born, and are listed in the Abingdon Parish Register. The family later moved to Spottsylvania Co. where three additional children were born. The children are listed as follows: Alexander, Jr., b.c. 1712, m. Margaret Doolittle; John (our ancestor), born 1714, m. Elizabeth Coffey; Grace, b.c. 1716, m. Edward Coffey; William, b.c. 1718, m. Nancy or Mary, surname unknown; Benjamin, b.c. 1721; Jeremiah, b.c. 1723; Jane, b.c. 1725, m. Chesley Coffey; Elizabeth, b.c. 1727, m. James Coffey.....Another son, Micajah, is sometimes included in this list of children, but it is uncertain that he belongs here.

Some sources report that the family lived for a time on the since famous Bull Run in Prince William Co. Sometime prior to 1734, they moved about sixty miles southwest, locating in a border settlement on Blue Run in Orange Co. Various deeds indicate that Alexander was a landowner.

Alexander and Milly both died at the plantation of their son John on Blue Run around 1770, her death coming just three days after his. Many sources report that Alexander lived to be one hundred and eleven years old and Milly one hundred and three. However, we believe this information is based on incorrect birthdates. Milly's, as previously mentioned, is sometimes reported as 1667 and Alexander's is thought by some to be 1659.

Ante Bellum Houses of the Bluegrass c1961 by Clay Lancaster

The two Cleveland cabins, in the first geographic division, are the best preserved in the county.

CLEVELAND CABINS Eli Cleveland obtained 740 acres of land between Boone Creek and the Richmond Pike in 1786, and probably built shortly thereafter the two cabins standing east of the later main house. Approximately half again larger than the Patterson cabin, these buildings measure 18 by 19 and 18½ by 23½ feet in area, and are placed 14 feet apart, oriented alike, but not set on an axis, undoubtedly for privacy and a wider vista from the windows (Fig. 3). Each has a shouldered chimney entirely of stone, a door opposite in the gable end, and a single window, now provided with glazed sashes, in each sidewall (Fig. 4). A steep, ladder-like stairway to the side of each door gives access to the loft, where sleeping quarters were provided for the younger boys. The building of a second cabin similar to the first constitutes the simplest mode of pioneer expansion; in this case it is possible that the smaller structure housed the slaves. A large log barn with flanking lean-tos also is on the Cleveland farm, and another like it is to be found at Locust Grove, five miles west of Lexington north of the Leestown Pike.

The one-story house divided into more than a single room was the next advance in building. The cabin on the south side of the Iron Works Road, halfway between the Newtown and Cynthiana (Russell Cave) pikes, contains two rooms, with an enclosed staircase to the garret adjoining the dividing wall. Shallow gun closets flank the chimneypiece in the west room. The Fry cabin on the Paris Pike at Hughes Lane and the servants' cabin back of the Hunter house at the county line on the Tates Creek Pike have two rooms and two terminal chimneys.

The ruins of a log house with a central chimney and the foundations of a pair of long cabins with end chimneys mark the site of a group once known as Bird Hill, which stood a mile directly west of the Cleveland farm on a prominence overlooking the deep valleys bordering the Kentucky River. Here is virtually a miniature settlement (Fig. 5). An arrangement resembling Bird Hill apparently existed in the early log buildings at Winton on the Newtown Pike, and it was translated into more substantial materials with the construction of the main pavilion of brick in 1823, the log units continuing to serve as subsidiary buildings until after the Civil War.[5]

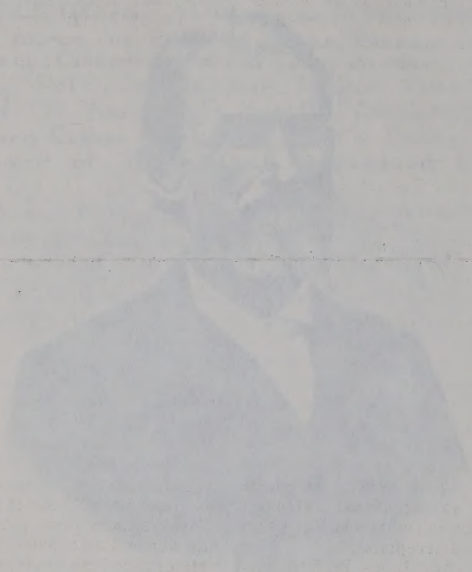
C. L. Cleveland



McCulloch, who knew his worth, went to Richmond, and he, in conjunction with John H. Reagan, then postmaster-general of the Confederate States, and a former partner of Judge Burford, secured for him a commission to raise a regiment. The regiment was speedily raised, in the spring of 1862, and mustered into the Confederate service as the 19th Texas cavalry. But, though holding a commission as its colonel, he refused to serve until the same was ratified by a vote of the regiment, which was done unanimously.

The entire service of the regiment was confined to the Trans-Mississippi department in Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas. Among the engagements in which it participated, while under command of Colonel Burford, were the battles of Mansfield, Blair's Landing, and Monett's Ferry. He was almost in touching distance of the noble and fearless General Tom Green, when he was killed at Blair's Landing.

Prompted by ill-health, he resigned his commission in September, 1864, and returned home.

In 1866, under President Johnson's reconstruction proclamation, he was elected to the legislature from Dallas county, and by the house of representatives, when assembled, he was elected speaker.

In April, 1875, he was elected presiding justice of Dallas county, and in February, 1876, (under the new constitution,) was elected judge of the eleventh judicial district, composed of the populous counties of Dallas and Ellis. In July, 1877, against the protest of many friends, he resigned this position. On the creation of north Texas, in 1879, as a distinct district of the United States judicial system, though an unchanged Democrat, he was appointed a United States commissioner, resident in Dallas, which position he now holds, honorably and acceptably.

On the 18th of January, 1854, Judge Burford married Mary J., daughter of O. B. Knight, a pioneer of Dallas county. With this excellent and universally esteemed lady his married life has been singularly blessed in domestic felicity. Of eight children, five still survive under the parental roof, viz: Mattie, a very lovely young woman, (this by the editor, who knows her well and tenderly esteems her,) born February 16, 1861; Nathaniel M. jr., born August 20, 1866; Robert Lee, born in 1870; Jeff. Mallard, born in 1876, and Mary J., born in September, 1879. Mrs. Burford is one of those rare women, reared in the wilderness, to whom chivalry and manhood bow, whether in the hut or the palace, and hence she is a pet with all the old pioneers of Dallas county, who have known her as child, girl, woman, mother and wife. The compiler of this rude sketch of the husband would be derelict to his sense of manhood not to pay this tribute to so pure and so good a woman as Mary Knight Burford. It is a sincere tribute to meritorious worth.

Mrs. Burford is a Southern Methodist, while the Judge is an Episcopalian—neither tainted with that clanish bigotry which so often mars otherwise loveable characters.

Judge Burford is yet but in the full tide of manhood—only fifty-six years of age—and may yet do good service to his country. He is an affable, genial man, generous to his own detriment—a fine conversationalist, fond of polite and biographic literature, and though not a poet, has much of poetry in his nature. He exemplifies, strikingly, a quaint saying of the Southwest, embodying the superlative idea of nobility in nature, in the expression, "He has a heart as big as a mountain!" He is a type of early men in north Texas, steadily passing away, whose individual labors are doomed to oblivion, but whose aggregate will be immortalized in the ultimate grandeur of this peerless region of the Southwest.

JUDGE CHARLES LANDER CLEVELAND.

GALVESTON.

CHARLES L. CLEVELAND was born in Breckenridge county, Kentucky, August 25, 1824. He is the son of Jesse A. H. Cleveland, who was born in Virginia, moved with his father to Kentucky, married Sarah Lander in Fayette county, was a farmer, a man of first-rate English education, a superior mathematician, in early life engaged in surveying in Kentucky, and moved from that state to Memphis, Tennessee, in 1831; in 1833 moved to Brazoria county, Texas, when his wife died, the first victim of cholera in that state; followed merchandising in Brazoria two years, settled on a farm near Barnard river in 1835, was a soldier under General Houston in 1836, moved to Galveston in 1841, having a considerable fortune, consisting principally of slaves; was deputy United States marshal under General Ben McCulloch during the latter's term, and had entire control of the office. In 1844 Jesse A. H. Cleveland, without pretending to any knowledge of the theory or practice of medicine, while the yellow fever was raging in Galveston, undertook the cure of that disease and was wonderfully successful, insomuch that he continued to treat patients afflicted with the disease for years afterward. He probably met with better success than any man in the South. The method of cure, without medicine, was published in the papers and periodicals, and proved to be more successful than any other mode of treatment ever adopted. He treated more than five hundred cases. His diagnosis and treatment were unfailing, and his method is known as the "Cleveland Treatment." Thousands in Galveston well remember Jesse A. H. Cleveland in connection with yellow fever, as he attended them night and day when afflicted with the plague. He was a man o.

great firmness and decision of character, and noted for his boundless generosity and hospitality. He died in Galveston in 1876.

Jesse Cleveland, the paternal grandfather of Charles L. Cleveland, was born at Mount Vernon, Virginia, was a man of strongly-marked personal characteristics, and died in extreme old age, at Galesburg, Illinois. His mother, Sarah Lander, was a native of Fayette county, Kentucky, and died at Brazoria, Texas, in 1833.

Charles L. Cleveland was a farmer's boy till the age of thirteen, when he entered the office of the Texas Republican, in Brazoria, Texas, which was worked on the first press ever introduced into Texas. It was known as the "war organ." While engaged on this paper Colonel William H. Jack, who is known in Texas history, was a contributor. Mr. Cleveland became well acquainted with him, and says of him that he was a most persuasive, silver-tongued, magnetic orator, a lawyer who stood in the front rank of the Texas bar, a speaker who carried a jury, court, or crowd with equal facility; the author of the Turtle bayou resolutions that bear the same relation to the Texas declaration of independence that the Mecklenburg resolutions bear to the Colonial Declaration of Independence. They were written on Turtle bayou with a pen made from a cane cut from its banks.

Mr. Cleveland also worked in the office of the Telegraph, a paper published at Columbia, on the Brazos, then the seat of government of the republic of Texas. Having worked several months in that office, he entered Rutersville College in Fayette county, from which institution he graduated with the degree of master of arts in 1842. The same year he went to Galveston, whither his father had moved in 1841 from Brazoria, and began the study of law, his preceptor being Judge Benjamin C. Franklin. He was admitted to the bar at Liberty in 1846. He remained at Liberty, and for twenty-five years devoted himself to the practice of his profession there. That he met with encouragement and pecuniary as well as professional success, may readily be inferred when it is stated that he began his career without means, having only his profession and an honorable ambition, and that he is now the owner of a large and valuable property. In June, 1871, he formed a partnership with Judge Willie, of Galveston, to which city he removed, and where he now resides. The business of the firm is very extensive, and no lawyers rank higher than they at the Galveston bar.

From Liberty county Mr. Cleveland was elected to serve in the sixth legislature of Texas, and served one term, Governor Pease being then the chief executive of the state. Major John Henry Brown characterizes his career in the legislature as especially useful in checking hasty, inconsiderate and injudicious action, and more distinguished for preventing bad legislation than for the introduction of original measures. August, 1860, he was elected Judge of the first judicial district of Texas, and this position he held until removed by Provisional Governor Hamilton, in 1865. No civil officers of the state were allowed to remain in office unless they would take and subscribe to the iron-clad oath. Those refusing to submit to this test of loyalty were regarded as impediments to reconstruction, and were accordingly removed. In 1861, while he was judge, he was elected a delegate to the secession convention from Liberty and Polk counties. The convention assembled in January, 1861. Judge Cleveland advocated and voted for the ordinance of secession, urging its submission to the people, by whom it was subsequently ratified by a vote of four to one. This important statement of a historical fact will correct the impression that the convention favored the adoption of the ordinance of secession, and the withdrawal of the state from the Union without the concurrence of the people as expressed at the ballot-box. Judge Cleveland supported secession and the war with all his influence and energy. He was a delegate to the Democratic state convention in 1857 from Liberty county, and in 1873 and 1876 from Galveston.

Charles L. Cleveland and Mrs. Mary Ann Booker were married April 9, 1849, in Liberty county, Texas. She is the daughter of Benjamin Watson Hardin, one of the pioneers of Texas, from Maury county, Tennessee. She was born January 5, 1829, in Liberty county, Texas, and was educated in Galveston. Her father and his three brothers, William, Augustine Blackburn and Franklin Hardin moved to Texas in 1828. William was primary judge of the jurisdiction of Liberty, department of Nacogdoches, from 1833 to 1836; was one of the eleven founders and original proprietors of the league of land upon which the city of Galveston was established, was associated with M. B. Menard in the organization of the Galveston City Company, and died in Galveston in 1838. Augustine Blackburn Hardin was a member of the "Consultation," which convened at San Felipe in 1835, and established a provisional government for Texas before its final separation from Mexico; was a soldier of the Texas revolution, and a member of the company commanded by his brother Franklin, and died in Liberty in 1871. Franklin Hardin was the first surveyor of the Liberty land district, entered the army in 1836 as a lieutenant in Captain Logan's company, and participated in the battle of San Jacinto; in the fall of 1836 organized and commanded a company in the army under General Rusk, and continued in the service until the close of the revolution; was elected to the state legislature in 1858 from Liberty county; died April 20, 1859, and was buried on the anniversary of the battle of San Jacinto, of which he was one of the heroes. Benjamin W. Hardin, father of Mrs. Cleveland, was a member of the Ayuntiemento of the Jurisdiction of Liberty, under the government of Mexico, and subsequently under the republic of Texas; held the office of sheriff several terms—a resolute man of great personal courage and unquestionable integrity, distinguished for hospitality, kindness and benevolence. He died in Liberty county, January 2, 1849.

From the marriage of Judge Cleveland and his wife nine children have been born: Watson H.

born March 16, 1850, died July 18, 1867; Stewart, born September 24, 1852, died March 17, 1854; John Stewart, born December 18, 1854; Lander, born March 17, 1857; Oliver, born December 16, 1859; Sarah, born November 26, 1862, died July 12, 1864; Charles Sidney, born September 16, 1865; Jesse W., born March 31, 1869; Willie F., born March 3, 1872.

Judge Cleveland and his wife are both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, but their children who belong to any religious society are members of the Baptist church. Judge Cleveland adheres to the Methodist tenets because of the broad and liberal grounds they occupy, while he accepts orthodox Christianity in every guise, and looks more to the life of the individual than to the particular creed or theory of church government he may espouse. His political principles are characteristically Democratic. Judge Cleveland became a Mason in 1848, in Liberty Lodge No. 48, and was master of that lodge for sixteen years. He has also taken the Royal Arch degrees. He was deputy district grand master for the first judicial district for several years.

Judge Cleveland's possessions are extensive. On the corner of Church and Twelfth streets, Galveston, he owns a residence valued at $4,000. Two other dwelling houses in the city belonging to him are worth $6,000. Besides these possessions, he has in fee simple 50,000 acres of land, unimproved, in Bastrop, Bexar, Blanco, Bosque, Brown, Burnet, Callahan, Chambers, Clay, Coleman, Comanche, Denton, Hardin, Jefferson, Karnes, Liberty, Montgomery, Polk, San Jacinto, Taylor, Travis, Tyler and Williamson counties. He is a director of the Texas Banking and Insurance Company, and also a stockholder. He is a stockholder in the Gulf Loan and Homestead Company, the Southern Cotton Compress Company, the Texas Cotton Press and Manufacturing Company, and the Galveston Gas Company, and is vice president of the Island City Protestant Orphans' Home.

During all his business life Judge Cleveland has given his special attention to the minutest details of his affairs. His success consists not so much in large receipts, as in taking care of what he has made. Frugal and unostentatious in life and bearing, he is warm in his attachments, generous and benevolent. His surplus earnings he invested judiciously, from time to time, in lands. He has been scrupulously exact in meeting his obligations, and no note of his ever went to protest. His credit has always been good, because he never strained it, nor subjected it to hazard. He avoided contracting a debt without seeing how it could be paid at maturity, and paying it promptly.

Judge Cleveland is a first-class man, whether we regard him as a civilian, a lawyer, or business man. His position is an enviable one, and it has been reached not by any improper arts, but by industry, integrity, the exercise of sound judgment, and the employment of the highest principles known to enlightened society.

JAMES BOYLE.

SHERMAN.

MR. BOYLE, though seventy-four years of age, has the erect figure, the elastic step and easy carriage of a well preserved gentleman. He has evidently studied, read, thought, traveled, observed, written and conversed much during all these years, so that their results have become a part of the man's personal presence, impressing themselves most agreeably upon every one who is so fortunate as to be thrown into his company. Mr. Boyle is of Quaker and Irish ancestry. His grandfather, Connel O'Boyle, was a sea captain, and a descendant of the O'Budhues, a race of Irish Kings. He married Miss Alice Dugan, in Donegal, Ireland, immigrated to this country and settled in Philadelphia, when John, the father of Mr. James Boyle, who was born in 1781, was yet an infant.

John Boyle, when eighteen years of age, became a member of McCarthy's surveying party, passing through Zanesville, Ohio, when there was but one house, a log cabin, in the place. Going afterwards to Delaware, he attended school in Mill Creek Hundred, a Quaker settlement eight miles north of Wilmington. Here he became acquainted with a charming young Quakeress, whom he shortly after married.

After the birth of four children, one son, (James,) and three daughters, they removed to Ohio, and settled on a farm near Zanesville, where he died in the seventy-fourth year of his age, a few years after the death of his wife.

James Boyle, born in Delaware in 1806, passed his childhood from three years old to twelve in the school room, and from that time till he was twenty in working on his father's farm. Going to Illinois, he attended Rock Spring Seminary for a time, then returned to Ohio and finished his course of study in the colleges of Kenyon and Granville. He was then for nine years county surveyor of Muskingum county. He next entered the Law School of Cincinnati and graduated in 1837. Removing from Zanesville to Cincinnati, he practiced his profession in that city thirty years, gaining prominence in his profession, and the confidence of all the leading men of the city.

Mr. Boyle married the youngest daughter of Colonel George Jackson, the hero of three wars—those of the Revolution, Indian and the war of 1812. He was a member of congress, first from Virginia, afterwards from Ohio. Stonewall Jackson and Wil-Judge Cleveland died in February 1892. The town or city of Cleveland in Liberty County is named for him.

Edward Coffey,Jr apparently did not leave a will, and there is very little imformation available for this family. The possible children listed were "in the right place at the right time", and were not accounted for in any other Coffey families.

Edward sold his share of theland in Essex Co. to his brother, John, in 1737, and apparently moved to Orange Co. where he witnessed a deed in 1740. The Cleveland family lived in Orange Co. at that time, so that is probably where he met and married Grace. Grace Cleveland signed some records in Orange Co. in 1734, so she was still single at that time. The marriage probably took place after 1737 when Edward moved there.

On 20 Jan.,1751, Edward bought 150 acres in Anson Co., N.C. on Jones Creek on the south side of the Pee Dee River. On 15 Aug. 1752 he sold it and apparently moved back to Orange Co., Va.---he is listed there on the 1749 and 1754 list of tithables. They soon must have moved over to Fredericksville Parish in Albemarle Co. , as Edward is mentioned a number of times in these records from 1769 to 1774. Most of these relate to payments to Edward for care which he provided for Alexander Cleveland, his father-in-law.

be out on their own. Since Elizabeth married John Cleveland who was born 1712 (see chapter 6) it's quite possible she wasn't born until 1714 as some have suggested. The birthyears as given in the chart at the end of this chapter is therefore quite hypothetical except that John and Edward must have been born in 1700 for reasons given earlier.

Edward Coffey, Jr. (Marvin Coffey - source)

John will be the subject of the next chapter. Let's now turn our attention to the other children, each in order, starting with Edward. We know very little about he and his wife Grace Cleveland. Edward sold[25] his share of the land in Essex county to his brother John in 1737 and apparently moved to Orange county where he witnessed a deed in 1740. The Cleveland family lived in Orange county at that time so this is probably where he met and married Grace. We do not know when this marriage took place but Grace Cleveland is mentioned in some Orange county records in 1734[26] so it would have been after this time and probably also after 1737. There is also a brief mention of Edward in Caroline county records in 1745[27] but it is not known if he lived there. On January 20, 1751 he bought[28] 150 acres in Anson county North Carolina on Jones Creek on the south side of the Pee Dee River. A year and a half later on August 15, 1752 he sold it and apparently moved back to Orange county Virginia. He is listed there on the 1749 list of tithables and again in 1754. The family must have soon moved over to Fredericksville Parish in Albemarle county as Edward is mentioned a number of times in these records[29] from 1769 to 1774. Most of these relate to payments to Edward for care which he provided for Alexander Cleveland, evidently his father-in-law.

As to the children of Edward and Grace we have no information. However, I believe there are some otherwise-unaccounted-for Coffeys who could well be their children. The most likely is a Cleveland Coffey (wife Elizabeth) who appears in various Orange and Albemarle county records from 1762 to 1774 (and possibly one record in 1791. He would have had to have been born by the early 1740s. This may also be the Cleveland Coffey who had a land entry[30] in 1778 on Zack's Fork of Lower Creek in Burke county North Carolina.

Another possible son of Edward and Grace is the Benjamin who was born in Virginia in 1763 and is on the Burke county North Carolina census from 1790 to 1850 (Caldwell in 1850). His wife is Leah, born about 1760 in Virginia. The Leah Coffey who married Francis Hickman April 19, 1798 in Jefferson county Tennessee may be their daughter. They also had a son Cleveland, born about 1782 with whom they were living in 1850. The name Benjamin probably came from the Cleveland family, Grace having a brother by that name (see Chapter 6). The chief problem with this Benjamin being a son of Edward and Grace is that Grace would have been 47 when Benjamin was born, rather late in those days.

Two other possible children of Edward are James Coffey who is on the 1785 enumeration of Botetourt county Virginia and William Coffey, found in some records of Montgomery county Virginia, 1781-1785. It is also possible that these two are children of Peter and Susannah Coffey of Prince Edward county (see chapter 7), but I have found no indication for one or the other. However, the William Coffey on Buckingham county tax lists, 1783-1797, is quite probably Peter's son. He also had land in Prince Edward county and had sons Abner, David and probably Pleasant.

Still other possible children of Edward are Jesse who is in Wilkes county North Carolina records 1779-1786, and an Isaac or Isaiah Zarrah, also in Wilkes county 1782-1796 (see chapter 4 for another possibility of the parentage of these two). The Jesse in Wilkes county up to 1786 may well be the same one who is on the Pendleton county South Carolina census of 1790 and 1800 and the father of six boys, Cleveland, Edward, Joel, Elijah, Elisha, and John who moved to Rabun county Georgia[31] in 1821. The use of the names Cleveland and Edward strengthen the possibility that Jesse was a son of Edward. Since he was over 45 at the time of the 1800 census he would have been born in 1755 or before. Jesse is not on the 1810 census of Pendleton county but a Nancy (over 45) is. This may well be his wife, Jesse having died prior to 1810. The number and age of children in the family are about right if this is the case.

Martha Coffey

Martha (Patsy) married Joshua Stapp (or Stepp).[32,33] He was a son of Abraham and Dorothy (Moss) Stapp (or Stepp) of Essex county Virginia. Abraham made his will[34] October 20, 1710 and it was recorded April 18, 1714.[33] Henry Scalf wrote a book[33] about this family which is both a help and a problem for us. Abraham's children[34] were Abraham Jr., William, Jacob, Joshua, Joseph, James, Ruth, Rebecca, and Martha. Joshua was the most prominent and according to Scalf was born about 1688. He lists his marriage to Martha Coffey as occurring in 1709/10 and her birth as 1690. We know this is not possible as Martha couldn't have been born before 1702 as we have previously seen. I have studied over the information provided by Mr. Scalf and, although no proof is given I will acknowledge that Joshua Stapp could have been born by 1688. However, I can see no reason why he needed to be married by 1709 or 10 and start having children. Indeed, the information given would tend to fit better if the first children were born in the 1720s. I would tend to place the marriage of Joshua and Martha as Edward and Ann Coffey got the name we do not know but there was a Daniel and Susannah Austin family in Essex county contemporary with Edward, and others before 1700. Of course the name might really be Austes and the person be a female. However, I do not believe the weight of what little evidence we have is in favor of this idea. Assuming then that this child was a male named Austin and married a Miss Chenault (this is the correct spelling) what happened to him? We really haven't a trace in the records as far as I am aware. A Stephen Chenault family occurs in the early 1700s in Essex county and is later in Orange county (1750). When John and Jane (Graves) Coffey sold their land in Essex county (see chapter 4) it was sold in 2 parcels, 1 in 1745 and the other in 1747. In the first instance the witnesses included William Duling and William Chenault, in the second instance William Duling and Stephen Chenault Jr. Thus we see the closeness of the Duling (or Dulin), Chenault, and Coffey families in Essex county. Presumably Austin would have been there too, but if so he apparently failed to create any records. He may have died as a young man or perhaps he did move out of the area. It has been suggested that he might have been the father of Chesley Coffey (see chapter 7) who probably was early in Albemarle county and may have gone to North Carolina, but of whom we also have no records. However, Austin may have been too young to be the father of Chesley.

It is of course possible that without creating public records he did manage to have several children and if so, some of those which I have suggested as children of Edward might be his.

Jesse COFFEE came with Colonel Benjamin Cleveland (of Revolutionary War fame, in the Battle of King's Mountain), from Wilkes County North Car. around 1794 to settle along the Tuguloo River in the original Ninety-Six District of So. Car. This later became Pendleton District and still later Anderson and Pickens counties. Pickens later divided into Pickens and Oconee. The property that was Colonel Cleveland's and Jesse Coffee's currently lies in Oconee County, S.C.
Shortly after Jesse's death in 1807, his six sons and at least one son-in-law (William Jones) crossed the Tuguloo to settle in Rabun Co., Ga. Rabun was originated in 1819. Cleveland Coffee (son of Jesse) and William Jones were among the nine Commissioners that made application to the state of Georgia to establish the county of Rabun in 1819.

Jesse Coffee is on the Wilkes Co., North Carolona records from 1779 to 1786. He is then on the Pendleton Co., S.C. census of 1790 & 1800. All six of the sons and the one daughter, Bashaba, later moved to Rabun Co., Ga. in 1821.
Jesse is not on the 1810 census of Pendleton Co., but his widow, Nancy, is, so Jesse died between 1800 & 1810.
Records of Shoal Creek Baptist Church in Oconee Co. S.C. show that on 30 Jan. 1808 Jesse had been deceased. His wife, Nancy, is mentioned (no date) as dismissed.

All birthdates this sheet are from the book SKETCHES/RABUN HISTORY. However, records of James L. Sparks, Knoxville, Tenn., shows all the same dates with the exception of the last child, Patsy, who he shows as 23 Feb. 1826. The latter is more feasible, but either one possible.

Sources fo

William JONES' first purchase of land in Rabun Co. was 8 Jan. 1820. We have not determined where he came from originally, but the book says he "came through No. Carolina, into So. Carolina"(where he married), then with 8 or 10 children , to Georgia. The book says he came with "no less than 10 children", but James L. Sparks records say he came to Georgia in 1815. Sparks record also shows there were 15 children, one (apparently unnamed) died in infancy.

Sources fo

A.O. LaPRADE reported in his family history that he had a newspaper clipping from the KEOWEE COURIER, printed in Walhalla, So. Car. on Friday, Sept. 20, 1872, containing the following information about William Jones:

> In 1872 there were 8 of the Jones children still living, 120 living grandchildren and 178 great-grandchildren, making a total of 306 persons. In addition to this, 7 children and 56 grand and great-grandchildren are dead, making a grand total of 369. The old gentleman made with his own labor in 1870 sufficient corn to do him. He passed away in his 100th year.
> (Note: SKETCHES book says he died at age 100 years & 4 months.)

Additional Information:

All children this family were born at the home place at the foot of Oakey Mountain about 10 mi. no. of Clarkesville, Habersham Co., Ga. I cannot believe Rutledge (child #2) was really born just 8 months after his older brother, but all records show him with that birth date, including his gravestone. He did die at age 23, leaving two young children. An older man in that area thinks he died "of 'flu or pneumonia or something like that"---we now know that "premies" are very prone to have respiratory problems so perhaps this is what caused his death at so young an age---- or the birth date is wrong. In those days it was very unusual to even raise a baby that was born a whole month early.
Rutledge's two children were John Henry LaPrade (who started LaPrade's Camp at Lake Burton in Georgia) and a daughter, Mollie. His widow Elizabeth later married Virgil Lovell. Elizabeth was a daughter of John F. ("Rocky Bottom")Smith and Sarah FULLER.

Child #7, Carera Alpine: marriage date 28 Sept.,1887 per family record
29 Aug, 1887 per Georgia I.G.I.

Child #8, Hinton: First wife died; he married second Mary Elizabeth JENKINS on 8 Mar. 1902 and third Maty Lajuna JENKINS (sister to Elizabeth) on 6 May, 1919. There were children by all three.

Child #9,James K.: married second Maude Phillips and third Hattie____?__, Winslow, Az. First wife died. I believe all three preceeded him in death, as he was a widower when we met him in Winslow in about 1945.

Child #10, Clinton: married second Rosalie Phillips, Winslow,Az.

Child #11, A.O.: married second Marie___?___ ,Arizona.

Child no. 1, Fernando, was the father of Arthur T. LaPRADE who became Arizona Supreme Court Judge. Arthur was on the Winnie Ruth Judd case that made headlines in all the newspapers in the 1930's

The wife, Angeline, must have been quite a character from family stories. She outlived her husband by more than 30 years, never remarried. Her children lived from Florida/Georgia to Oklahoma/Arizona and she used to go by train to visit, staying perhaps a month in the home of each son and family. Each family had stories about "grandma". When she visited my branch of the family in Okla., one of the men in town saw her get off the train, recognized her from other previous visits, and with some surprise asked, "Why Grandma LaPrade! Do you always travel ALONE??" She replied hautily, "Of course not---there's always other folks on the train when I travel!" On another trip, a young mother travelling with a sick baby was having a terrible time getting the baby to take it's medicine. Every time she would just about get the spoon to the baby's mouth, baby would wave it's arms and the spoonful of medicine would go flying. Finally, grandma got up out of her seat, crossed the aisle, pointed her long finger in the baby's face and shouted, "YOU SWALLOW THAT MEDICINE!" The frightened baby gulped, and down went the medicine. Grandma didn't worry whether or not it made anyone mad, just saw a job that needed to be done and knew how to get it accomplished. When it came time for the next dose of medicine, the mother asked grandma if she would mind helping again!

Chesley Coffey (Marvin Coffey)

Another line which has caused much confusion is the one which I shall call the Chesley-Joel line. There were many large families in this line and today many descendants are researching it. Because of this, and since it is not my line I will not go into great detail but rather give only some of the early branches where confusion with the Edward-John-James line might be more likely to occur. Beyond this I refer the interested reader to other researchers[23] and especially an essay on the family written by Timothy Peterman (see later reference).

As mentioned, there were many large families in this line in early American times. Each family used a lot of the same names and thus it is sometimes difficult to untangle all of them. Fortunately there are some early Bible and other family records, and a few wills, all of which help immensely. Mary Porter[24] has some of these old records that provide many of the keys. Her husband, Calvin Reese Porter, is the great grandson of Nathan Coffey and Sarah Meredith, this Nathan being the son of Joel Coffey and Martha Step, and Joel the son of Chesley Coffey and Jane Cleveland.

The information back to Nathan seems documented by an old Bible. However, the material on Joel Coffey-Martha Step, and Chesley Coffey-Jane Cleveland was written down by a daughter of Nathan and Sarah (Eliza Emeline Coffey Porter) about 1895, presumably from older records which she had.[25]

A DAR record[26] has always listed Joel as born 1730 and married in 1753 to Mar Martha Sealey who was born in 1737. However, their youngest son Nebuzaraden, born posthumously in 1789 would thus have been born when Martha was 52 years old. Several possible explanations have been proposed: (1) Joel married Martha Sealey who died and then he married Martha Step; (2) Joel married a widow by the name of Mrs. Martha Step Sealey; (3) Sealey was a nickname for Celia which was a middle name of Martha; (4) Joel was really much younger, being born circa 1750. One or more of these possibilities could exist. Let us examine them.

It has been suggested that a son Joseph who is not listed in Joel's will[27] of 1789 but is on the list of children given by Eliza Porter, could have been born to the first wife and died before the will was made. Also, this Joseph is reported to have gone to Kentucky quite early and was supposedly older so he might have already been provided for and perhaps thus not be listed in the will. Of course, even if there was only one wife Joseph could have died early. Martha Step's father was named Joseph so it is quite logical that the first son could have also been named Joseph.[28] One of the daughters of Joel and Martha was named Celia but re-

Green county tax lists[33] in 1799 but some do not appear until 1800.

Now lets return to the family of Joel Coffey. Eliza Porter states[25] that his parents were Chesley Coffey and Jane Cleveland. As far as I know no one has found a record of this early Chesley or of a Jane Cleveland. The latter seems obviously related to the Cleveland family of Virginia[34] and later Wilkes county North Carolina (see chapter 6), and tradition seems to have the Joel Coffey family coming from (probably) Albemarle county Virginia[35] to North Carolina in an early day, perhaps in the 1750s or by 1760. If Joel was born closer to 1750 perhaps Chesley may have been born around 1730. The latter could then, as has been suggested, be a son of Edward or Austin Coffey, brothers of the John Coffey who married Jane Graves. Supposedly Edward (who could have been born as early as 1700) married Grace Cleveland and Austin married a Miss Shenault.[36] However, Grace Cleveland was a witness to a deed in Orange county in 1734 so apparently hadn't married Edward Coffey early enough to be the mother of Chesley. Also, she wasn't born until 1716 (see chapter 6). We know little about the early life of Edward; perhaps he could have been married before Grace. As we saw in chapter 3 he is in Orange and Albemarle counties in the 1750s to 1770s and had a short stay in Anson county North Carolina (1751-2). This might establish the close relationship of Edward Coffey to the Chesley-Joel line, but we don't have adequate information to make this connection and dates do not coincide as well as need be. Perhaps a number of our dates are somewhat off and perhaps there is something incorrect about the Chesley Coffey-Jane Cleveland information. Of course it is possible that this line is entirely separate from the Edward-John-James line but there seems to be so many connections, in Virginia, North Carolina, and Kentucky that it is difficult to imagine them not related. Timothy Peterman[29] also points out the many close parallels in the two lines.

It has been suggested that Chesley Coffey could have been a son of an unknown Coffey who married a Miss Chesley since the practice of using sir names for given names in such cases was not uncommon. I have seen nothing to substantiate this except that a Phillipp Chesley and wife Margaret are mentioned in York county Virginia court records January 25, 1674 and Phillip is mentioned even earlier (1664) in connection with his land patent in James City county. Also a Dan Chesley is mentioned.[37]

The children of Chesley and Jane appear to be as follows:[29]

1. Joel - b. 1730 (DAR) or more probably abt. 1745-48, in Virginia (?); d. bef. 27 Jul 1789, Wilkes co., N.C.; m. 1765-68 Martha Step (Sealey of DAR rec.); served in Rev. War.

2. Salathiel - b. abt 1750-55; d. bef. 28 Jul 1784, Wilkes co., N.C.; m. bef. 1773 Elizabeth _____.

3. Chesley Jr. - b. 19 Nov 1755; d. 18 Sep 1818, Maury co., TN; m. bef. 1780 Margaret Baldwin.
4. Nebuzaradon - b. 1757 (or earlier); d. 1797, Madison co., KY; m. abt 1780 (tradition) Elizabeth Hays; pvt., N.C. Militia in Rev. War. If his son Joel was the one who md. Jane Coffey in Wilkes co., N.C. 22 Aug 1793 then Nebuzaradon must have md. several years before 1780.
5. Nathan - b. 1760 (or earlier), Rowan co. (?) - DAR Lineage recs. say Anson co., N.C.; d. 1823, Jackson co., AL; m. late 1770s Mary Saunders.
6. (Perhaps) Cleveland or Jesse Cleveland and/or other undetermined Coffeys.

Salathiel died (bef. 28 Jul 1784) intestate in Wilkes county and although his wife is named in the administration[38] of the estate, no children are named. His wife and children moved to Adair county Kentucky[29] about 1799-1801[39] (Green county at the time) and some children later went to Illinois. The children and some other descendants are apparently the following:[40]

1. Newton[41] - b. 1773, Wilkes co., N.C. (Surry co. at that time); d. 1858; m. 1802 Sarah Meridith; went to Bond & Montgomery counties, IL by 1818 where he founded the town of Hillsboro; children: Cleveland Salathiel, Martha (Patsey), Ruth Eliza, Thomas L., Colbert L., Nancy, and Murry.
2. Eli - b. 8 May 1775; d. 18 Jul 1833; m. 22 Mar 1801[42] Mary Coffey, dau of Nathan (1760), Green co., KY; moved to Sangamon, then Shelby, then Christian co., IL; 12 children: Mariah, Willis, Elizabeth[44] (b. 14 Aug 1807; d. 21 Jan 1891; m. 19 Dec 1826 Jacob Wolford, Russell co., KY), Nancy, Salathiel, Sirena, Nathaniel J., Stanton P., William S., Newton Eli[43] (b. 2 May 1823; d. 1890; m. 13 Apr 1843 Martha Vermillion), Mary Ann, and Reuben.
3. Elizabeth "Graney" Coffey - b. 1781-4; m. 17 Mar 1801 Rutherford Coffey (son of Nathan, 1760), Green co., KY.

4-6. Possible children may have been James, Richard, and Salathiel, the latter b. 1781 & m. 25 Oct 1808 Polly Blair in Adair co., KY.[45]

Chesley is the only one of the 5 known sons of Chesley Sr. for whom we have exact birth and death dates. He and his wife Margaret Baldwin were married before 1780 and are on the 1782 tax list of Wilkes county. They had 9 children as follows:

1. Nathan - b. 13 Aug 1780; m. (1) 3 Mar 1806 Elizabeth Gilbreath (or Kilbreath), Adair co., KY, (2) Euphy Stockard.
2. Polly - m. John McClain.
3. Isaac - murdered in 1799 as a young boy.
4. Gracie - b. 1782; d. 13 Jan 1859; m. 12 Dec 1802 Andrew Turnbow, Adair co. KY
5. John - m. 29 Mar 1809 Sallie Brown, Adair co., KY.
6. Felicia[46] - b. 3 Mar 1787; d. 18 May 1865; m. 21 Aug 1811 James Turnbow, Maury co., TN.
7. Joel (Joe) - b. 15 Jun 1789; m. Sallie Mackey; see chapt. 13 for more on this family which came to Oregon in an early day.

This family moved after 1795[47] to Knoxville, Tennessee[29] and were in Adair county Kentucky by 1802[48] and possibly as early as 1799.[49] Chesley had gone to

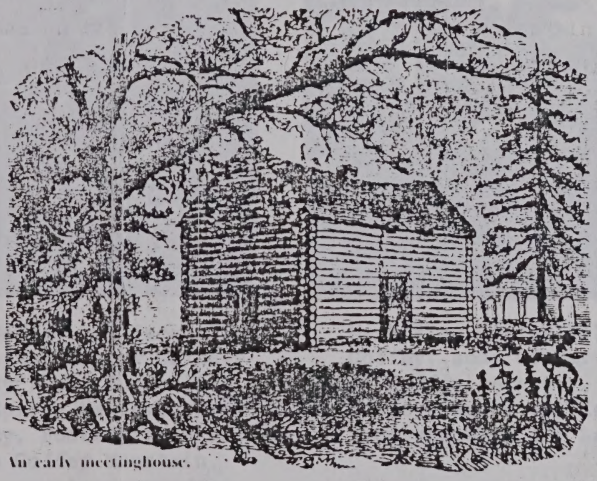
CHAPTER 5

VIRGINIA TO NORTH CAROLINA-

JAMES COFFEY AND

ELIZABETH CLEVELAND



An early meetinghouse.

"There goes the parson, oh illustrious spark!
And there, scarce less illustrious, goes the clerk".
... Cowper

(by Marvin Coffey) Lewis Russell? Coffey Don't know where the name came from. He is only Lewis in all records I've seen -

The last of James and Elizabeth's children was Lewis Russell, born November 18, 1772 in Amherst county Virginia. He married on December 10, 1795 Bidant ("Biddy") Moore, another daughter of Jesse and Alley Moore. She was born May 3, 1775 and died January 3, 1851. Although Lewis had a land grant in the Elk Spring Valley of Wayne county Kentucky in 1799 (then Green county) they apparently didn't move there until 1807[20] Perhaps the 1799 grant was originally to his brother James and was the land previously mentioned which was traded to Lewis. Many of their children and relatives settled around them so that this area became known as the "Coffey Settlement", and was located on the east side of a mountain known as "Coffey Mountain." (see pictures). It is a beautiful spot, only a few miles from Monticello. There is a family cemetery located there in which both Lewis and Biddy are buried. I visited this area in 1976 and marveled at its beauty and solitude.

Mark Alan Coffey holding Todd Coffey, sons of Marvin D. Coffey--- in Coffey cemetery, Elk Spring Valley, Wayne co. Kentucky. Large toombstone is for Lewis R. Coffey.

Lewis was a large land-holder and quite prominent in Wayne county.[19] There were 11 children in this family, listed in Chart 5-I. It is probably the best known family descended from James and Elizabeth Coffey. A grandson, Shelby Moore Cullom, was a U.S. Senator and Governor of Illinois (son of Elizabeth Coffey and Richard Northcraft Cullom).[52] It has sometimes been said that Lewis was in the Revolutionary War. This is an error since he would have been too young to serve then. However, there may have been an older Lewis, still unidentified, who was in that War. Lewis was in the War of 1812[19], serving as a private in Captain Micah Taul's company from Wayne county. He also served in the House of Representatives of the Kentucky Legislature in 1815.[19]

We should now go back to Amherst county Virginia where the last of James and Elizabeth's children were born. James had sold some of his property to William Coffey (presumably his brother) in 1768.[53] The remainder was sold March 1, 1779.[54] However, James moved his family to Wilkes county North Carolina before this as he had a land entry there June 2, 1778 for 200 acres on Warrior Creek.[55] (see map page 39). He had a second land entry November 23, 1779 for 300 acres and several other early deeds such that by 1782 he owned 700 acres.[56]

Although James became a large landholder in North Carolina and had sufficient land in Virginia he was far from a wealthy man. In an undated British Mercantile Claim document[57] (probably about 1777-8) he had a debt at the Amherst Store of Speirs, Bowman and Company of 10 pounds, 1 shilling, and 1 pence. The record states "James Coffie or Coffey was insolvent before the war as appears by the return of the Sheriff upon an execution which issued against him in behalf of Tucker Woodson 'that the defendant had no goods whereof the debt and costs could be made'. At no period since the commencement of the war has he been able to pay anything."

It has often been said that James was a missionary to Wilkes county, perhaps as early as 1757, and a minister when he lived there. Also, some tradition says that he founded the old Mulberry Fields Baptist church which was located at the present site of Wilkesboro, North Carolina.[58] There are probably two major errors in this idea. First of all, some Baptist records written in 1772[59] indicate that James joined the Baptists sometime between 1767 and 1771 and he and his wife were part of a group forming the Amherst Baptist church May 10, 1771. Thus, if he did serve as a missionary it was probably after this date. Secondly, the Baptist records dealing with the Mulberry Fields church,[60] organized in 1769, make absolutely no mention of James Coffey, either in the founding or in the preaching, then or later. Records of other Baptist churches in the region are very scant until about 1790 when we find records of the Yadkin Baptist church. Several Coffeys were active in it but this was after the death of James. However, one other history[61] indicates he may have founded a church in the Mulberry Field sector of Wilkes county. It goes on to say that this was a mere meeting house, commonly called "Brother Coffey's Meeting House" and was not strictly Baptist but was attended by people of many faiths. Since an area near where the Coffeys lived is also called Mulberry (now a township by that name) it seems probable that this simple meeting house where he preached was located there (in present Caldwell county) and not at Mulberry Fields. The latter was some distance away and would have necessitated considerable travel to attend meetings. It is not clear in various histroies whether this meeting house was located on the Yadkin (near Patterson) and was thus the forerunner of, or was actually the original Yadkin church, or whether it was located on or near James' property and the establishment of the Yadkin church was independent and a few years later. From Hayes' work[61] it would appear that they are separate entities since on page 110 he refers to the church at the head of Yadkin (Patterson) being established in 1779 and on page 111 there is a reference to a meeting in 1791 at Brother Coffey's Meeting House on Lower Creek. The latter area is a bit south of James' property. Of course James Coffey died in 1786 and the minutes of the Yadkin church show that most of his relatives were associated with it in the 1790's and early 1800's. Some of these minutes from 1801 lead one to believe there was only one church as they mention the "Mountain Association met on Head of Yadkin at Coffey's Meeting House".[62] There is another reference to this same church as "Coffey's Meeting House" in 1807. Thomas Coffey was very active in church affairs and James Jr. (son of James Sr.), Eli Coffey, and Mastin Durham were all clerks at one time or another. Thomas Fields was a deacon. Eli and Mastin (and probably James Jr.) left the church over disagreements.

James was a patriot during the Revolutionary War.[63] It has been said that all of his sons that were old enough served in the War, and more particularly in Colonel Ben Cleveland's Regiment of Wilkes county "Bulldogs." However, the only ones for whom I have seen materials that would tend to verify this are John, Reuben and Eli. Both of his son-in-laws were Revolutionary soldiers.

James made his will (see appendix C) September 13, 1786 and it was proved October 26 in Wilkes county.[64] All of his children are named except he mentions the "heirs of my son Archelaus." The latter thus died before September 1786. Elizabeth is said to have gone to Tennessee with her son Rice where she died about 1827, and probably about 100 years old. At the Bell Buckle or Old Salem cemetery (in Bedford county Tennessee) there are 2 stones in the Coffey lot that are underground and unreadable. According to Timothy and Helen March[65] one of these is probably that of Elizabeth Cleveland Coffey, or at least they say she is buried there.

We have noted that a number of the children of James & Elizabeth Coffey went to Wayne county Kentucky. A neighbor of theirs, Daniel Boone, was of course instrumental in the blazing of the Wilderness Trail into Kentucky. It began near where the Coffeys lived and went through the Watauga country into Tennessee where it joined the Great Valley Road coming down from Virginia. Here the road passed through the famous Cumberland Gap into Kentucky (see map, page 68 and picture, page 118.)

Lewis Coffey b. Nov 18, 1772 Amherst County, VA
m. Dec 10, 1795 to Biddie Moore Wilkes County, NC
d. Sept 29, 1850 Wayne County, KY

(by Marvin Coffey)

James is one of the best known of the children of John and Jane (Graves) Coffey. Born 1729 in Essex county Virginia, he was their first child. He is referred to as Reverend James Coffey because he became a Baptist minister in Wilkes county North Carolina. He married Elizabeth Cleveland, the daughter of Alexander Cleveland. The Clevelands are further discussed in the next chapter. It appears that the Cleveland and Coffey families lived in both Orange and Albemarle counties.[1] Most Coffey genealogists have assumed that James and Elizabeth were married in Orange county about 1750 and the date has been listed as August 30, 1750.[2] However, there is no reference given for this date and it is not found in the Orange county marriage records. The date may be confused with the date of James' first land entry (see below). Since we haven't found a record in Orange county it is quite possible that they were married in Albemarle county where the marriage records for that period of time are not extant.

James Coffey was on the Orange county "List of Tithables" in 1749 but not in 1754 so they probably settled in Albemarle county soon after their marriage. However, the first deed record I have found in Albemarle county is dated 1758. In this they bought 124 acres from James' father John, at the head of the middle branch of the Hardware River.[3] Again, many of the early Albemarle county records are missing and we do not even know when John bought this land. Thus it is presently impossible to be certain when James Coffey settled in Albemarle county, but I am assuming it was probably by 1754 and possibly as early as 1750. Jacqueline Sexton says they had a land entry of 115 acres there August 30, 1750.[4] The only land entry I have been able to find is a Virginia land patent for 262 acres "on the head branches of Meechums River (see map, page 35), under the Ragged Mountains." This was received July 26, 1765 but such dates were often several years after the land was entered. In this case, James had already moved to Amherst county a year previous to the date of this land patent (see later). I am thus listing the birth of the first 2 children, Elizabeth (born about 1751) and John (born about 1753) as probably Albemarle county.

Elizabeth Coffey (by Marvin Coffey)

Elizabeth (the first child and daughter) was generally called Betty. She married Robert Whiteside of Albemarle county and they later moved to North Carolina where they lived next to her parents in Wilkes county. This marriage was probably in Albemarle county since Robert's father, William, had a land patent there near the Coffeys (in 1753). William and Thomas Whiteside, probably brothers, were listed as members of the Orthodox Reformed Presbyterian Church[5] on Ivy Creek March 29, 1747 and William was among the Albemarle company of Militia for Protection of the Frontier Against the Indians, September 1758.[6] Robert was in the Revolutionary War and probably at the Battle of Kings Mountain with some of the Coffeys.[7] Sometime later Robert and Elizabeth moved to Wayne county Kentucky where they probably both died, 1810-1812. Their best known son was Jonathan who it is said settled in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He and brother Robert are on the Pulaski county Kentucky tax lists in 1806-7.

John Coffey

(by Marvin Coffey)

According to long standing tradition and early family lists the second child and first son of James and Elizabeth Coffey was named John and was born about 1753. Recently a supposed Bible record[8] has come to light which gives his birth as February 13, 1755. If true, he may not be the first son. However, at present there is enough room for doubt that I will here use the 1753 date. There are few records concerning John. He also settled in Wilkes county North Carolina[9] where his children were raised and where he died December 27, 1825.[10] His wife was apparently named Mary (called Polly or Molly)[11] but nothing further is known about her. The names of only 9 children have been known[11] but David Strange's records list 11. We have the marriage records of 5 of these.[12] A daughter Sarah married Michael Israel, Jr. and a descendant of this couple is Willard Israel who presently lives in Crossville, Alabama. A descendant of the son Levi, who married Dolly Edmondson, is Lavar West of Thatcher, Arizona. Two descendants of the daughter Elizabeth who married Archelaus Alloway Strange are Frances Tiller of Kansas City, Missouri, and David A. Strange of San Rafael, California. Their lines are given in Chart 5-B along with other descendants of John and Polly. The son Lewis went to Gwinnett county Georgia and is listed there on the 1830, 1840, and 1850 census. A Revolutionary War pay voucher for John Coffey, dated June 26, 1784, is supposed to be for this John.[4] It has been said that Reverend James said he had 2 sons and 1 son-in-law who served in the war. The sons might thus be John and Reuben and the son-in-law Mastin Durham. However, we have already seen that another son-in-law, Robert Whiteside, had Revolutionary service, and later we shall discuss two more sons, Ambrose and Eli, who may also have served in the War.

JAMES COFFEY JR.

James Coffey Jr. was the fourth child and third son born to James and Elizabeth Cleveland Coffey. He was born about 1757 in Albemarle County, Virginia. The Coffey's resided on the Hardware River in Albemarle County, Virginia, maybe as early as 1750. By 1761 they had moved to the Meechams River area of Albemarle County. Then about 1767 the family moved to the Tye River area of Amherst County, Virginia, where they remained until early 1779. It is known that James and family were in Wilkes County, North Carolina on 23 Nov 1779, as he entered 300 acres on the Warrier Fork waters of the Yadkin River. The entry stated that this land lay between land already owned by James Coffey Sr. and James Coffey Jr. Thus it is believed that the Coffeys arrived in Wilkes County during the summer of 1779.

James Coffey Sr., known as Rev. James Coffey, was a missonary of the early Baptist Church. Evidence tends to show that Rev. Coffey started a church in Wilkes County, called Coffeys Meeting House. This Church would be referred to as The Church at the Head of the Yadkin by the late 1780's. It would finally become known as Yadkin Baptist Church, located at Patterson, in present day Caldwell County, North Carolina.

The 1782 Wilkes County tax list shows James Coffey Jr. as a single man. A marriage record for James Coffey Jr. has never been found, but strong evidence exist to support the belief that he married Mary (Mollie) Moore, the daughter of Jesse Moore and Alley Johnson. Mary was born in Albemarle County, Virginia 2 Jun 1766. Their marriage probably took place in Burke County, North Carolina in 1783. The reason that the marriage bond cannot be found is that Burke County records were almost totally destroyed during the closing days of the Civil War.

The will of James Coffey Sr., dated 13 Sep 1786, probated at the Oct. term of court 1786 in Wilkes County, shows James Coffey as a son along with wife, Elizabeth and other children; Betty Whitesides, John Coffey, Reuben Coffey, Abious Coffey, Ely Coffey, Rise Coffey, Marther Durram, Joel Coffey, Lewis Coffey, and deceased son Archelus Coffey.

James and Mary resided in Wilkes County after their marriage, on the 200 acres he owned in 1779. For some reason this land was not granted until 23 Oct 1782. On 31 Aug 1787, James purchased an adjoining 200 acres from Francis Bishop. They remained in Wilkes County until late 1789 or early 1790. Shortly thereafter they moved across the mountain to the Globe settlement of Burke County, North Carolina, where Mary's family; the Moores lived. James Coffey Jr. is shown in the 1790 U. S. Census, in the fifth company of Burke County. It shows one male over 16, one male under 16, three females, and one slave. His name was listed Jas Coffy. The fifth company included all the residents of the Globe as well as Upper Johns River. An extant Burke County tax list dated 1793 shows James Coffey paying tax on 275 acres of land in the Globe. This land was made up of a 25 acre entry to him and a 250 acre purchase from Abraham Alloway Strange.

The Moore's were early members of the Yadkin Church. The Globe was not far in distance from the Church, but due to the rugged terrain the journey required most of a day to accomplish. All of the Moores, including James Coffey, made the once a month trip to the Yadkin. The Yadkin Baptist Church minutes show James Coffey several times in their early records. In Jul 1790 he is the new clerk; Jan 1791 he is ordained an elder; Apr 1791 he is named a delegate to the association (same date, Jesse Moore is named deacon); Jan 1793 he and brother-in-law Daniel Moore, have a disagreement which results in Daniel, Jesse, and Alley Moore being excommunicated from the church; Apr 1793 he resigns as clerk; Mar 1794 he questions the doctrines of the church; Jun 1794 he is excommunicated for his belief. That was the final mention of James Coffey in the church minutes.

James Coffey Jr. died in 1794. He did not leave a will. The extant records of Burke County show that an administration bond dated 27 Jan 1795, was granted to Mary Coffee, widow and to Jesse Moore, administrator of the estate of James Coffee. A deed dated 14 Nov 1795 from Mary Coffey, administratrix and Jesse Moore, administrator of James Coffey, deceased to Reuben Coffey, for 103 acres on Warrier Creek, shows up in Wilkes County records. Another deed dated 5 March 1797 between Mary Coffey, adminx and Jesse Moore, admn. of James Coffey, deceased to Abraham A. Strange for 200 acres on Warrier Creek is also there. A partially burned lawsuit, filed by Waightstile Avery, attorney for Jesse Moore, administrator for James Coffee, deceased against William Dula for non-payment of a negro woman, survives at the Archives. The suit dated Sep 1797 was brought before the Morgan District Superior Court based on a note dated 16 Jun 1796. This is for the slave listed in the 1790 census.

As indicated by the 1790 Census, James and Mary Coffey had three children; Archelaus Coffey b 1784 d Ca 1827 (believed to have married Sarah Durham), Elizabeth Coffey b 17 Jan 1786 d 28 Dec 1859 (married Lance Estes), and Alley Coffey b 23 Mar 1790 d 25 May 1851 (married Richard Baker).

Mary Coffey was received by experience into the Yadkin Baptist Church in Jan 1795, and then became a charter member of the Globe Baptist Church on 14 Jan 1797. On 9 Jul 1796 Mary Coffee purchased 16 acres from Abraham Strange in Burke County North Carolina. The deed was proved in court by Jesse Moore. Mary married James Gilbert during 1797 in Burke County and was enumerated with him in the 1800 Burke County Census. There is a male child, under 5 years, shown with James Gilbert in the 1800 Census. This unknown child could have been the son of James Coffey or James Gilbert, but he does not appear in the 1810 Census, indicating that he had died. Mary and James Gilbert remained in the Globe section of Burke County until her death in 1842. They became the parents of three daughters; Nancy Gilbert b 24 Sep 1798 (married Colbert Hayes), Sarah Gilbert b Ca 1800 (married Joseph Pearson), and Mary (Polly) Gilbert b 1804/05 (married Allen Gragg). The names James and Mary Gilbert show in the minutes of the Globe Baptist Church for many years.

Elizabeth Coffey Estes left a will, probated in Caldwell County in Feb 1860 listing her father's estate and her mother's estate. She stated that her father was named James Coffey, and that her mother was Mary Gilbert.

It is known that Rev James Coffey was a patriot during the Revolutionary War, and it has been said that all of his sons who were old enough fought in the war. There exist military records for John, Reuben, and Eli, sons of Rev. James. Both of his sons-in-law, Robert Whiteside and Mastin Durham fought in the war. His son Archelaus, who died about 1783, is thought to have died in the war, although no record exist. James Coffey Jr. probably fought in the Revolution, but so far no record has been found.

ARCHELAUS COFFEY

Archelaus Coffey was the eldest of three children born to James Coffey Jr. and Mary Moore. He was born in 1784 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. He was named for James' older brother, Archelaus Coffey, who probably died in the Revolutionary War shortly before his nephews birth. James Coffey Jr. died in 1794 in Burke County, when Archelaus was only ten years old. The Coffeys had moved from the Warrier Creek waters of the Yadkin River to the Globe section of Burke County in early 1790. In 1797 Mary Coffey married James Gilbert. The Gilberts remained on the land that James Coffey had owned in the Globe.

From the Burke County Censuses of 1810 and 1820 we know that Archelaus Coffey married about 1805 and that he was the father of five children; three girls and two boys. The name of Archelaus Coffey's wife is unproved; however, there is evidence to suggest that she may have been Sarah Durham born 11 Mar 1787, the daughter of Mastin Durham and Martha Coffey. Archelaus and Sarah were first cousins. They were probably married at the Globe Baptist Church in Burke County.

The Minutes of the Globe Baptist Church, where Mary Coffey was a charter member in 1797, shows that on 27 Aug 1803 Archelaus Coffey was received by experience, and in 1805 he became a deacon. He is listed in the 1805 Burke County tax list of Captain Coleman's company with no land but one white pole. In 1806 he stood witness, for his step-father, James Gilbert, in a complaint by John Majors before the Globe Baptist Church. The Burke County Tax List of 1815, shows Archelaus Coffey of Globe 190 acres, $200 value and 1 white pole; and the 1819 list, shows Archelaus Coffey 200 acres, $200 value and 1 white pole. The 1818 Return of valuation of property of Reuben Coffey's estate shows the signature of Archelaus Coffey as a witness.

Archelaus Coffey's children were; James Coffey b 1808 (married Nancy Green), Polly Coffey b 1810, Elizabeth Coffey b 10 Nov 1812 d 8 Apr 1860 (married Grief Lindsay), John Coffey b 1815, and Nancy D. Coffey b 1818 (married Rufus B. Clark).

The Globe Baptist Church minutes for Mar and Apr 1824 show Archelaus Coffey at odds with the church, and he is not mentioned again. The belief is that he may have been excommunicated for his beliefs. On 29 Aug 1827 Archelaus purchased 100 acres on Johns River from James Gilbert. After this date Archelaus just disappears. He is not mentioned in the Burke County Court Minutes after 1827 nor is he shown in the 1830 Census of Burke or surrounding Counties. There is a listing of James Coffey, son of Archelaus, in the 1830 Burke County Census that shows his brother and sisters living with him, and also indicating that Archelaus and wife were most likely deceased. Archelaus Coffey and his wife probably died around 1827.

On 26 Jun 1841 James Coffey sold to Carroll Moore the land that Archelaus Coffey had purchased from James Gilbert and also land that James Gilbert had purchased from Edward Lee in 1812. Apparently James Coffey had been granted the administration of his fathers estate as well as guardianship of his minor brother and sisters at their parents death, although no record exist in Burke County indicating that fact. Information on Archelaus Coffey is difficult to find due to the destruction of Burke County Records during the Civil War.

GRIEF LINDSAY

Grief Lindsay was born 8 February 1798 on Johns River in Burke County, North Carolina. The names of Grief's parents cannot be absolutely established. His mother is believed to have been Mary (Polly) Hight, the daughter of John Hight. It is commonly believed that Mary Lindsay died at or shortly after her babies birth and that the relatives were so grief stricken that they named the baby Grief. The 1800 Burke County Census shows John Hight listed, one male over 45 years, with a young male under 10 years. From this it is believed that Grief lived with his grandfather, until John Hight died in 1804. The most conclusive evidence showing that Grief's mother was a Hight is the fact that his second son was named John Hight Lindsay.

The identity of Grief's father may never be known. There are no Lindsays enumerated in the 1790 or 1800 Burke County Census records or extant tax records of the period. It is known that the Hight family came to Burke County from the Charlotte County, Virginia area. A tax list from Charlotte County shows Francis Lindsay living near John Hight. The best guess is that Francis Lindsay was the father of Grief. He would have been a man in his early 60's who had lost his wife about 1795. He remembered the Hight family, who had left Charlotte County some eight years before, and the daughter Mary. He may have written to John Hight, in Burke County, and found out that Mary was still single. He probably traveled to Burke County in late 1796 or early 1797, where he married Mary Hight. They probably remained in Burke pending the birth of her first child, but unfortunately she died during childbirth. The grief stricken father left the baby in the care of John Hight so that he could return to Virginia to settle his affairs. While there he probably died, thus accounting for the infant Grief Lindsay, being left both fatherless and motherless, and in the permanent care of his maternal grandfather.

At the April term of Court of Burke County in 1805, Laban Estes was appointed guardian of the minor orphan Grief Lindsay. This relationship is again mentioned in the January 1810 term of court. The 1815 Burke County Tax List of Captain Coffey's District shows Laban Estes, guardian for Grief Lindsay, and list one white pole.

On 24 July 1817 Grief Lindsay married Elizabeth Estes, the daughter of his guardian Laban and Elizabeth Webb Estes. Elizabeth Estes was born 8 November 1798 in Burke County. She was the second of three children of Laban and Elizabeth Estes. Laban Estes had died on 10 April 1817, leaving his will in Burke County. In the will Elizabeth Estes and her sister Nancy Baker are left a piece of property. Grief sold their share to this property to the Bakers, and in 1818 purchased 347 acres from Lewis Harris. This property was on Johns River, where the Village of Collettsville in, present day Caldwell County, is located. The Lindsays lived on this property until Elizabeth died in 1836. The Burke County Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions minutes show Grief Lindsay receiving land from his wife's uncle John Webb. The deed is for 170 acres dated 31 July 1819, proved by Reed Hight, the brother of Mary Hight Lindsay. The 1819 Burke County Tax List shows Grief Lindsay listed with 347 acres valued at $500, one white and one black pole. The October term of Court of 1829 again shows Grief Lindsay receiving property from the Webb Estate.

Grief and Elizabeth Estes Lindsay were the parents of nine children;
1. Laban Estes Lindsay-25 Apr 1819-28 Aug 1887. Married Sarah Freeman.

2. Elizabeth Lindsay-1821-1 Jan 1828. Did not marry.
3. Nancy E. Lindsay-1823-after 1880. Did not marry.
4. Mary E. Lindsay-22 Dec 1825-2 Feb 1850. Did not marry.
5. Catherine Lindsay-1828-May 1904. Married 1. Thomas W. Setzer, 2. Andrew F. Torrence
6. John Hight Lindsay-1830-18 Apr 1863. Married Mary Isabella Holloway.
7. Leonard Lindsay-1832-unknown.
8. Charity Eveline Lindsay-1834-19 Feb 1895. Did not marry.
9. Merica Selena Lindsay-27 Mar 1836-4 Jan 1915. Married Ephraim D. Setzer.

Elizabeth Estes Lindsay died 27 Mar 1836 after the birth of her daughter Merica Selena. She is thought to be buried in an unmarked grave on the Johns River property

On 14 September 1837 Grief Lindsay married Elizabeth Coffey the daughter of Archelaus Coffey. Elizabeth Coffey was born 10 November 1812 in Burke County. Hard evidence of the parentage of Elizabeth is difficult to find due to the destruction of the Burke County Records during the Civil War. The 1820 Burke County Census shows Archelaus Coffey with a daughter the right age. The 1819 Burke County Tax list shows Archelaus and Grief living close together, and the first child of Grief and Elizabeth was named Joseph Archibald (called Arch),named for her father. The name of Archelaus Coffey's wife is believed to be Sarah Durham. Elizabeth was the third of five children of Archelaus and Sarah Coffey.

Shortly after the death of his first wife, Grief purchased some property on Little Mulberry Creek. He left the Johns River property in the care of his eldest son, Laban, and moved his new wife and his family to Little Mulberry. In 1839 he purchased an adjoining 200 acres from William Loving. This is the property that he lived out his life on.

Grief and Elizabeth Coffey Lindsay were the parents of seven children;
1. Joseph Archibald Lindsay-19 Dec 1838-8 Jul 1927. Married Mary Bathsheba Baird.
2. William Reid Lindsay-21 Jan 1842-5 Oct 1903. Married 1. Mira Caroline Baird.
3. Martha D. Lindsay-23 Dec 1843-27 May 1929. Married Joseph C. Wilson.
4. Harriet R. Lindsay-16 Aug 1846-23 Feb 1875. Did not marry.
5. Margaret J. Lindsay-9 Jan 1849-1860/69. Did not marry.
6. James K. Lindsay-11 Aug 1851-14 Oct 1857.
7. Thomas Shuford Lindsay-15 May 1858-22 Nov 1935. Married Susan Emma Allen.

The first tax list of Caldwell County after its formation in 1841 shows Grief Lindsay with 1019 acres. He served on many juries and road survey committees after 1841. Grief Lindsay's estate record shows a great deal of personal property and various financial dealings. The 1860 Caldwell County Census shows both Grief and Elizabeth Lindsay in the mortality schedule. It appears that they both were taken by fever. Grief Lindsay died 22 March 1860 and Elizabeth on 6 April 1860. Grief and Elizabeth Coffey Lindsay are buried in the Lindsay Family Cemetery, located on property owned by descendants of Grief Lindsay. The cemetery is on a hill just off highway 90W near the Mount Olivet Methodist Church just outside Lenoir, North Carolina.

Martha Coffey (by Marvin Coffey)

Martha Coffey, according to her great great granddaughter Nell Marsh[22] was born about 1758 (this would be in Albemarle county) and married in February 1774 Mastin Durham (born 1755, died August 1, 1844) who served in the Revolutionary War.[23] Mastin was active for a time in the Yadkin Church, holding the office of clerk, but according to the minutes[17] in 1807 he accused the church with being "extortionists, drunkards and disorderly persons," and desired to withdraw his fellowship. He was excommunicated.

The children of Martha and Mastin were born in Wilkes county, North Carolina but the family moved to Wayne county Kentucky in 1811 where both Martha and Mastin died. She died prior to August, 12, 1826 and was buried near the Coffey Settlement in Wayne county.[4] Most Coffey genealogists have listed Martha as born 1768 and married 1794. However, the family records of Nell Marsh are probably more reliable. It appears that the dates 1768 and 1794 were copying errors.

Reuben Coffey (by Marvin Coffey)

Reuben Coffey was born September 16, 1759 in Albemarle county Virginia. He is frequently confused with his uncle Reuben who married Sally Scott (see previous chapter). The Reuben here discussed was in the Revolutionary War and received a pension.[24] He fought at the Battle of Kings Mountain under Colonel Benjamin Cleveland, a first cousin (see page 87). Reuben lived in Wilkes county 1778-1797 (on the north side of Warrior Gap - see map, page 39), Burke county 1797-1819 (Blairs Fork), and Wayne county Kentucky from 1819 until his death on June 9, 1842.[25] The wife of Reuben is not given in any records, but tradition has it that her name was Millie Morris.[26] Reuben is listed as having 10 children.[4] The 1800 census of Burke county, N.C. would seem to indicate that there was another male, born between 1790 and 1800. If so, we have no record of him. Many of Reuben's children lived in Wayne county Kentucky. Some descendants still live there today, among them Bennie Bryan Coffey and his daughter Jacqueline Coffey Sexton, authors of "The Coffeys of Wayne County."[4]

Ambrose Coffey (by Marvin Coffey)

The next child was Ambrose, born in 1762 in Albemarle county Virginia. He is said by some to have also served in the Revolutionary War, but I have seen no proof of it. I believe he has been confused with the Ambrose who was at the siege of Fort Boonesboro (see below). Our Ambrose married Mildred (Millie) Moore, another daughter of Jesse and Alley Moore. Millie was born March 31, 1770[14] (or March 13, 1770[15]) and died in 1812, probably in Pulaski county Kentucky. Following her death Ambrose married Elizabeth Rice[27] and later probably Polly _____.

Ambrose lived in Wilkes county, N.C. until about 1804[28], lived in Tennessee for a short time, and came to Kentucky about 1806.[20] He was living in Pulaski county when he died, as his widow petitioned there for letters of administration and for the allowance of dower, September and November 1818, respectively. They had just sold[30] 90 acres of land (purchased in 1816) in Pulaski county to Vincent Garner on September 2. The balance of Ambrose's land (157 acres) which fell to the widow and children as heirs was finally sold[31] April 18, 1826, also to Vincent Garner. The settlement[32] mentions that there were 12 children but doesn't name them. In all of these petitions and deeds Ambrose's wife is listed as Polly. Since this is not a diminutive of Elizabeth it seems likely that Ambrose had a third wife. In the indenture of 1826 she is listed as the wife of John Mills but I did not find the record of her remarriage, nor do I know her maiden name. There is a marriage of Polly Coffey to James McHenry on July 7,, 1821, security Vincent Garner, so perhaps she married him first and then John Mills before 1826. Since Vincent Garner provided the bond when she obtained letters of administration and he is frequently found in other records involving Polly and Ambrose, it seems likely that her maiden name may have been Garner. In October 1877 Samuel Tate is granted[33] letters of administration in the estate of Polly Coffey, deceased, but this could be another Polly. There is a Polly Coffey on the Pulaski county 1820 census (age 15-20) and a Polly Ann on the Pulaski 1830 census (age 20-30). Four children are listed at home in 1820, three in 1830, but one of the latter is a male under 5. Perhaps she was remarried once or even twice (briefly), had 1 son and resumed her first married name (Coffey).

The children listed in the indenture are Jesse, Hiram, Betsey, America, Mira, Jefferson, Washington, Greenup, and Emily. The latter two we understand to be children by the second wife, Elizabeth Rice,[34] the others by Millie Moore. However, omitted are James Madison, Holland, Alice, and Mildred.[34] Perhaps they were older and already gone from home, although some could have been predeceased. We know for certain that Holland was alive as he later became quite prominent in Texas. He is known there as an Indian fighter and owner of the Coffey Trading Post on the Red River (in Red River county). Eventually he was killed and buried at the trading post.[34] Ambrose's family appears in Chart 5-E.

Many Coffey genealogists have mistakenly said that our Ambrose Coffey was in the battle of Fort Boonesboro (Kentucky) with Daniel Boone. True, an Ambrose Coffey was there but it was a different one. A deposition[35] taken in 1809 in Madison county Kentucky proves that this Ambrose was not the same man as ours. He was born about 1759 in Dublin, Ireland and came to this country as a young boy. He is undoubtedly the Ambrose on the Fayette county Kentucky census of 1790 and Montgomery county 1800, and the Revolutionary soldier stationed at Fincastle (Kentucky) in 1776.[36] He had several children, including a son Ambrose who in turn had a son Ambrose. These families are found in the records of Montgomery, Morgan, and Greenup counties.

Eli Coffey (by Marvin Coffey)

The next child was Eli (often spelled Ely in some records). He was born March 1, 1763, probably in Albemarle county Virginia. He married Hannah Allen, daughter of David and Hannah Allen, and they probably lived in Wilkes county[37] North Carolina until 1816[20] when they moved to Wayne county Kentucky. Eli was quite active in the Yadkin Baptist church, serving as church clerk, 1804-1807. In June of the latter year he left the church "on account of principle and rules of said society.[17] In 1808 he was a Justice of the Peace.[61] He is said to have died at the home of his son, Colonel Asbury Madison Coffey in Knobnoster, Missouri September 5, 1847. However, Asbury did not move to Knobnoster until 1859 and was in Pettis county Missouri at that time. There is a Revolutionary War pension application[38] for Eli Coffey, and his son Asbury wrote a letter[39] in which he says that his father entered the army at the age of 16 and served the balance of the war.

Eli and Hannah had 2 boys that died in infancy, James and Allen,[40] and one who lived to maturity. The latter was Colonel Asbury Madison Coffey, born July 25, 1804 in Wilkes county North Carolina. He graduated from Center College in Danville, Kentucky in 1826 and moved to Tennessee where he taught school. On July 22, 1828 he married one of his former pupils, Mary Bradford. She was a niece of Sarah Bradford, the wife of Rice Coffey who was the brother of Asbury's father Eli.[40] Asbury and Mary lived in McMinn county Tennessee[41] until 1842. During this time he was treasurer of the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad.[16] They moved to Pettis county Missouri, and finally in 1859 to Knobnoster, Johnson county, Missouri. Asbury was elected to the legislature from Pettis county in 1850 and appointed as an Indian Agent by President Fillmore in 1851.[42] He lived for some years among the Peories in Kansas.[43] He was a member of the first Territorial Legislature of Kansas ("Bogus Legislature") in 1855 and Coffey county Kansas was named for him, but not the town of Coffeyville as many have stated.[44] Of some interest to Western Coffeys is the fact that 2 of his children settled in the Beaverton-Portland, Oregon area. These were Henry and Rachael. The latter married Robert Walker. Asbury died in Knobnoster November 28, 1897.[45]

Rice Coffey (by Marvin Coffey)

Rice Coffey, born April 1766 in Amherst county Virginia, was probably the ne child of James and Elizabeth. On December 13, 1764 James bought land along the Tye River in then Amherst county but now Nelson county (see map, page 35) from Thomas Jefferson.[46] The land in Albemarle county was sold in 2 parcels, one in 1766 and the other in 1767.[47] Thus Rice was probably the first child born in Amherst county. As previously mentioned he married Sarah (Sally) Bradford. This took place in 1790. She was born July 22, 1770 and died September 3, 1840 in Bedford county Tennessee.[48] Rice died at the same place July 24, 1853. Their home place was near Wartrace. They probably went there quite early as Rice appears in very few North Carolina records. He is on the 1788 and 1789 tax lists as well as those for 1796-99, but not on the 1790 or 1800 census. This could indicate that he was gone during the period 1790-95 and that he moved permanently about 1800 or soon thereafter. The first tax list in Tennessee in which he appears is 1812, in Bedford county (first list extant for that county). A short account[49] of the family written about 1890 by Rice Abner Coffey, a grandson, says that Rice moved from North Carolina to Bedford county Tennessee in 1808. It also says that all of the children except the last 3 were born in North Carolina which would put the migration date a bit earlier.

Rice and Sally were parents of 9 children. Some discrepancy exists in various lists of these children but I believe the one given at the end of this chapter is about as correct as we can get it. The 1820 census lists 5 male children and 3 female, which would be correct because Jerusha died in 1810. Rice and Sally's youngest son, John Reid was a colonel in the Mexican War (later Brigadier General of the Alabama Militia) and otherwise rather prominent in the south, serving as sheriff of Jackson county Alabama, and in 1861 as a delegate to the convention which passed the ordinance of secession.[50]

Sources for Husband:

Joel Coffey (by Marvin Coffey)

The tenth child of James and Elizabeth was Joel, born in 1770 in Amherst county Virginia. He married Martha (Patsy) _____ (maiden name unknown). It is difficult to be certain about records in Wilkes county for Joel, as he can be confused with another Joel living there. This other Joel will be discussed in Chapter 7. Our Joel may have gone to Burke county as he and his family are reported[4] to have moved from there to Wayne county Kentucky about 1806. A Joel of the "correct" age appears on the 1800 and 1810 census of Burke county. Joel was a carpenter and built the Wayne county courthouse in 1825.[4] He died in December 1826 leaving a will.[51] Martha went to Randolph county Missouri where she died in 1839.
